Subject: Amcor and Berry to Combine, Accelerating the Possible, Right Now

Dear NAME,

Today, we announced that Amcor has entered into an agreement to combine with Berry Global, creating a global leader in flexibles, containers and closures for consumer and healthcare customers, with unprecedented innovation capabilities and scale to solve customers' and consumers' sustainability needs. This transformational combination positions Amcor to accelerate the possible, right now, elevating brands, shaping lives and protecting Earth. We are grateful to have you as our partner in these efforts. You can find the press release announcement here.

As you may know, Berry provides more sustainable flexibles, containers and dispensing closures for customers in food and beverage, home and personal care, food service and healthcare. They bring complementary capabilities, including strong innovation, specialized tooling, design and multi-component assembly. Berry's culture is closely aligned to ours and focused on safety excellence, customer passion, sustainability and innovation. Together, we will help global and local customers grow faster and operate more efficiently, with a more complete and more sustainable product offering, supported by stronger innovation capabilities, global scale and supply chain flexibility.

We will also create the innovation partner of choice developing the most sustainable packaging solutions, expanding choice for customers and consumers by allocating more resources to critical areas and using our combined expertise and technologies to solve bigger challenges.

We are excited to continue partnering with you to ensure supply chain resilience in a dynamic world and offer more sustainable solutions that drive circularity, increase use of alternative materials and lower carbon footprint.

Until the transaction is completed, which we are targeting in the middle of calendar year 2025, subject to customary closing conditions, Amcor and Berry will continue to operate as separate, independent companies. Both now and after the completion of the combination, you can expect to work with us as you always have, and our contracts are unchanged. As a larger company, we expect there will be additional opportunities for us to partner and build on our relationship.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to [your usual Amcor contact // INSERT].

We value our relationship and look forward to our continued success together.

Best,

[Peter Poulos // INSERT]
